Thou drink est what ang uish Thou hast borne! What ho ly blood that fall eth! What deep soft sighs
I give Thee for Thy red eem ing grace! When dark ness lurks a rou nd me and bit ter pains dis co ver when brought back to af ter Hearth! What joy and Ex ul ta tion when we meet Fa own cro ss and fol low af Thine! I'll take Thy name most will ing ly, Thy flesh be com
